Financial Services Guide

1. What is a Financial Services Guide?

This Financial Services Guide ('FSG') helps you understand and decide if you wish to use the financial services we are able to offer you.

It provides you with information about the authorising licensee Kennedy Barnden Advisory Pty Ltd "licensee" and the services it and its representatives who may be its employees or the employees of the licensee's related business Kennedy Barnden Chartered Accountants.

This FSG tell you:-

- who the licensee is and how it can be contacted
- what services and products the licensee is authorised to provide to you
- how the licensee (and any other relevant or associated parties) are paid; and
- how the licensee deals with complaints.

The licensee and its employees (including any employees of a related business) are collectively referred to as "us, we, our" throughout this FSG.

We may provide you with personal advice that takes into account your needs, financial situation and circumstances. Where we provide you with personal advice we will provide you with a Statement of Advice ('SOA'). The SOA outlines our advice and the basis on which the advice was given. It also outlines relevant information about the licensee together with information about the fees and charges associated with our advice. We are only able to provide personal advice about self-managed superannuation funds ('SMSF'), other superannuation funds in certain circumstances, and a limited class of products as stipulated under the licensee's Australian Financial Services Licence ('AFSL').

If we provide further personal advice, you may request a record of the further advice that is provided to you, if you haven't already been provided with it. You can also contact us, using the details below, within 7 years from when the advice is provided to request this record.

Occasionally we provide general advice. If we provide you with general advice, it may not be appropriate to your needs, financial situation or objectives, and you should consider your circumstances before choosing to proceed with our advice. Additionally, you should obtain and read the applicable Product Disclosure Statement ('PDS') (if one is available) before making a decision.

If we help you establish a SMSF, we may provide you with a PDS. The PDS contains information about the product to assist you in making an informed decision about the SMSF. It will outline relevant terms, significant risks, and fees and charges associated with the product.

The licensee has arrangements in place to maintain professional indemnity insurance. This insurance satisfies the requirements under section 912B of the Corporations Act 2001.

Please retain this FSG for your reference and any future dealings with us. We may also add documents at a later date which will also form part of this FSG, and these should be read together with the FSG. These documents will include the word 'FSG' in the heading.
